

A MUSLIM SHOULD NOT CALL ANOTHER MUSLIM A KAFIR (DISBELIEVER/ INFIDEL)

INFIDEL. Sheikh "Muhammad Abduh" (1849-1905) the Head of the Islamic Verdict body (mufti) in Egypt & most Islamic countries in his time wrote in his article "Principles of Islam" that one of the Islamic principles is that a muslim should NOT accuse another muslim of "kufr" or name him a kafir/apostate/disbeliever/revert & it is an Islamic rule that if either a verbal or physical act done by any muslim can be construed from 100 points of view & aspects as an act of "kufr/revert & its doer as a "kafir/apostate" , while construed from just one point of view / aspect as an act of "belief " , then this act is to be deemed & construed as an act of belief & the muslim to be deemed as a believer

It is a rule in Islam that

?? ?????? ?????????? ??? ??????

translation " whoever muslim says about another muslim that he is a kafir , then the sayer is the kafir " .

For more on that go to our article "who is kafir " click here